My Mother's Voice Privacy Notice

Mymothersvoice.org acknowledges your interest in how information on our site is used and shared, and we appreciate your trust that we will handle your information with professional courtesy. This policy is made available on the "Contact Us" page of our site, and is posted to reflect our open attitude towards this policy for our visitors. This notice describes our privacy policy. By visiting this site, you acknowledge the provisions and practices in this Privacy Notice.

What information about visitors is gathered?

The information we gather will always be voluntarily given. This allows us to create a database of individuals who are interested in our cause. No solicitation of information will be without user's consent. Cookies and other digital varieties of information are automatically processed. The types of information we gather are:

Information You Give Us:

Filling out forms, donations, or email correspondences may prompt the user to give us information such as their name, address, and email. This information is stored in our database for the sole purpose of further correspondence with the user. This information is not sold, or given to other companies for use of solicitation. This information is voluntarily given, though opting to leave out certain details may render the user's donation or email unusable.

Automatic Information:

Internet browsers are typically set to accept cookies. Our website receives certain automatic information from user browsers when they visit. We currently do not offer any online services which utilize cookies. These are used to speed up browsing our site, and have no further purpose. You can opt to turn off cookies from our site by using the options available in your browser.

Use of Information:

We do collect a count of hits per page for internal and marketing uses only; your personal information is not counted or used.

Information provided to complete a transaction is limited to that transaction only. This is not shared with any external parties except those consented to complete the agreed upon transaction.

We use return e-mail addresses to answer the e-mail we receive. Such addresses are not used for any other purpose and are not shared with outside parties.

Finally, we never use or share the personally identifiable information provided to us online in ways unrelated to the ones described above without also providing you an opportunity to opt-out or otherwise prohibit such unrelated uses.

Data Security:

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.
